PART II -- RULES 12b-25(b) AND (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

- (a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;

- (c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III -- NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-Q, 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Capstone Green Energy Corporation (the "Company") is unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2023 (the "Quarterly Report"), without unreasonable effort and expense. The Company needs additional time because the Company still in the process of compiling information necessary to complete both the Quarterly Report and the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023 (the "Annual Report"), and Marcum LLP ("Marcum"), the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, requires additional time to complete its audit of the consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended March 31, 2023 to be incorporated in the Annual Report, and will need additional time to review the consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended March 31, 2023 to be included in the Quarterly Report, once the Company has completed their preparation. The delays are attributable in large part to the ongoing review and investigations by the Audit Committee of financial reporting and other matters.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Form 12b-25 contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of applicable United States securities laws. These forward looking statements include statements regarding the completion of activities necessary to permit such filing within the applicable extension period, including the Audit Committee's review of certain matters. Forward-looking statements are based on management's current expectations or beliefs about the Company's future plans, expectations and objectives. These forward-looking statements are not historical facts and are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause the actual results to differ materially from those projected in these forward-looking statements. These risks include, but are not limited to, the matters being reviewed by the Company's Audit Committee and the outcome of the Audit Committee's review thereof, the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, the success of actions intended to address the Company's situation with the holder of its senior secured notes, financial statement adjustments resulting from the completion by Marcum of its procedures in respect of the financial statements to be included in the Quarterly Report and Annual Report, and the impact of the Company's inability to timely file the Annual Report or the Quarterly Report, including the potential adverse effect on trading in the Company's stock and on the Company's ability to raise capital, including because the Company has lost its eligibility to use or file a new shelf registration statement on Form S-3 until the Company has timely filed its periodic reports with the SEC for a period of 12 months (and otherwise satisfies the Form S-3 eligibility requirements). Readers of this Form 12b-25 are cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements contained herein, which speak only as of the date of this Form 12b-25. Except as expressly required by the federal securities laws, the Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, changed circumstances or future events or for any other reason.
